Deodar Road is superbly located for the shops and services on Putney High Street and Lower Richmond Road. Transport links are excellent, with river taxis, overground, and underground services all less than a 10-minute walk away. The 20 acres of Wandsworth Park are at the end of the road, and access to the River Thames could not be easier. Putney has long been popular with families due to the exceptional schools, both state and private, in the local area. Schools within walking distance include Hurlingham School, Merlin School, and Putney High School. In nearby Barnes, there are St. Paul's School and Harrodian School, along with King's Wimbledon School in Wimbledon.
